

PROJECT ENGINEER

Intamin Amusement Rides Int. Corp. Est. is a world's leading manufacturer of amusement and theme park equipment. The comprehensive product range includes roller coasters, water rides, giant wheels and trap towers. These rides are designed and developed meeting the needs of our customers in our offices in Schaan.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- overall project management
- management of the project-specific procurement of engineering, drafting and production services
- management of engineering, production, procurement and installation deadlines
- technical management/monitoring and verification of the projects ongoing
- material and services procurement and budget control
- development of quality plans and monitoring of the required quality
- ensure of the flow of information within the project organisation and with the customer
- production of the project-specific documents such as risk analysis, calculations, design verification, manuals, etc.

REQUIREMENTS

- completed course of training/studies, BSc or MSc degree in mechanical engineering, a minimum of 5 years of work experience, preferably in the same or similar industry
- well-developed technical understanding and record of experience in successful project management
- experience in negotiation on a technical as well as commercial level with good ability to take costs into account
- good communication skills
- flexibility regarding working hours, deadlines and travelling
- good command of English
- team player

We look forward to receiving your complete application documents at bewerbung@intamin.com.
For any questions please contact Mr. Alexander Biedermann D +423 237 03 67.

